HOW CAN WE HELP YOU?

The LEA is here to help. If you are a Loudoun County Public School employee, you are eligible to join. Call today, 703-858-7700.

LEA/VEA/NEA WORKING FOR YOU

Sandy Sullivan, our full-time release President, devotes her time to our membership concerns.

Patsy Brown Layer and Pam Dilbeck are the UniServ Directors who advise members regarding employment related issues.

Debbie Harris is the LEA full-time Administrative Assistant. She can answer a multitude of questions for members.

Local workshops are conducted by the LEA and the Virginia Education Association to enhance your professional development while you earn recertification points. LEA effectively advocates for educational issues with the school board and board of supervisors.

Membership in the 60,000-member-strong Virginia Education Association makes you a part of an experienced and effective statewide organization that advocates for education issues in Richmond. VEA lobbies the State Board of Education, Department of Education and the Virginia General Assembly.

Membership in the National Education Association, with over 3.2 million members, makes you a part of the largest education association in the nation. NEA monitors education issues including ESEA, IDEA, Head Start, tuition tax credits and vouchers in Congress.

WHAT HAS LEA DONE LATELY?

This is just a sampling of LEA's recent successes.

We have:

Increased LEA's strength with the addition of over 300 new members last year.

Advised and represented numerous members with employment related concerns and/or grievances.

Monitored school board meetings and committee meetings.

Sponsored 4 members' participation in the NEA Mid-Atlantic leadership conference.

Provided $6,000 for scholarships to Loudoun county high school seniors pursuing careers in public education.

Sponsored a Member Mini-Grant Award Program through VEA/NEA.

Paid registration fees for members to attend:
National Board Jump Start training and Indoor Air Quality Seminars.

Organized a grassroots campaign for allocation of stimulus funds to LCPS.

Sponsored VAAP and VGLA support sessions.

Organized Loudoun's participation in Read Across America and arranged school visits for the Cat in the Hat.
